Notes from the boss.....

Our exit from the Littlewoods Cup in such terrible circumstances last week was a bitter blow to all of us.

It wasn't just the fact that we lost to Wigan after being in such a strong position in the tie... what upset me particularly were the decisions that cost us so dearly.

That is something we must put behind us, though, and on reflection the more I think about our performance I really can't accuse the players of a lack of effort. We were just extremely unfortunate.

The disappointment of losing to Wigan should make us doubly determined to bounce back and continue where we left off against Cardiff in our last home game.

We have had a reasonable start to the season in the League so it is important for us to get back on the rails as soon as possible. We cannot afford to let one disappointment knock us out of our stride.

We got that Cardiff victory under our belts thanks to a lot of hard work and if we can manage a few more good results in the next half dozen games or so I will be more than happy.

We still need to keep plugging away and creating the numbers of scoring chances we have been doing up to now. . . and taking them of course.

It was pleasing to be with the Reserves when they got off to a winning start to their season at Mansfield last week. I was one of the experienced players who played alongside some of our young lads and it was an enjoyable performance.

It is a bonus for the club to have a handful of older players who may, at certain times, be excess to first team requirements. They will often help the younger lads along in the Central League games.

PETERBOROUGH UNITED

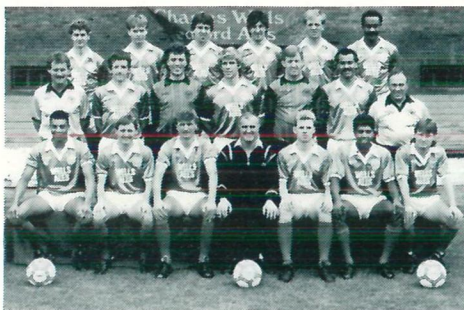

Peterborough United are sponsored this year by Charles Wells Ltd a family owned Brewery from Bedford.

Noel Cantwell is in his second spell in charge, having returned in the Autumn of 1986 as manager of the club which he led to promotion as Champions of Division 4 in 1973-74.

Posh have been members of the Football League for almost half of their 53 year existence, twice winning the Fourth Division championship. Jimmy Hagan's side did it at the first attempt in 1960-61. Hopes of more progress were almost achieved in 1977-78 when promotion to Division Two was missed only by goal difference. Posh also have a distinguished record as cup fighters and success in the FA Cup during the 1950's, when the club also won the Midland League championship in five successive seasons, paved the way to League admission. The best FA Cup run was in 1964-65 when Queens Park Rangers, Arsenal and Swansea were among teams eliminated before defeat in the 6th round by Chelsea at Stamford Bridge. In the following season Peterborough United beat Newcastle, Charlton, Millwall and Burnley before losing 6-3 on aggregate to West Bromwich Albion in the semi-final of the then League cup.

Throughout the soccer world the club is known as 'The Posh', a nickname reputed to date back to 1934 when fans commented on how posh the players looked when kicking off for the very first Midland League fixture against Gainsborough Trinity in a smart new strip. At that time the club's colours were green and white and it was not until 1937-38 that the more familiar blue and white was adopted.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY!

Old warhorse Bobby Campbell sensationally changed the course of this Littlewoods Cup tie with a hat-trick in the last 28 minutes.

Remodelled Bolton seemed to be cruising to a lucrative tilt at one of the big guns when they fairly comfortably held a 4-2 aggregate advantage.

But the big Wigan striker, despite being well contained for most of the night, had other ideas as he hauled Wigan back from defeat.

Angry Bolton player-boss Phil Neal claimed World Cup referee George Courtney had given Wigan a helping hand.

"He had a nightmare," rapped Neal. "I'm stunned and I'd better watch what I say about the officials. But they got Wigan back into the game."

Bolton having won 3-2 at Wigan, seemed to have wrapped up their passage when £30,000 signing John Thomas seized on a Jeff Chandler header to shoot home in the 18th minute.

But the arrival of Mark Hilditch and Ian Griffiths in a double substitution put new zip into Wigan.

A Hilditch flick sent Campbell clear to score off the bar after 62 minutes — a goal given by a linesman.

And nine minutes later the burly Campbell firmly nodded in a David Hamilton free kick which Neal clearly didn't think should have been awarded.

Then with extra time looming, Paul Jewell struck the bar and in swooped

Campbell with a header to complete a shock comeback.

Bolton Wanderers lost their cool and their Littlewoods Cup hopes in a second half of sheer madness at Burnden Park.

At half-time they held a two-goal advantage and looked like coasting through to a lucrative second round tie.

When John Thomas raced clear to stretch their lead after only 18 minutes Wigan's cause looked all but lost.

It would have been too if Roy Tunks had not managed to block Trevor Morgan's close range header just before half time or Jeff Chandler had hit the target and restored the lead with a simple chance just after Campbell's 64th minute equaliser.

But that Campbell goal turned out to be the real killer blow.

Racing clear onto a Hilditch flick, the big man let fly with a shot which hit the underside of the bar and appeared to bounce clear in the style of Geoff Hurst's famous goal in the 1966 World Cup Final.

Linesman Ray Shepherd immediately signalled to referee George Courtney and, despite Phil Neal's touchline protests, the goal stood. 7 minutes later a disputed free kick, again awarded on Mr Shepherd's intervention saw Campbell power in a header from David Hamilton's cross. More fury from Wanderers.

KEITH WELCH
ROCHDALE

This week we cover the fortunes of a comparatively 'unknown' in Keith Welch, but it might be worthwhile to remember the name.

For Keith is a young Boltonian who has been regularly turning in consistent performances with our neighbours Rochdale. He attended Sharples School and represented the Town team just like many other promising youngsters.

He joined Rochdale after writing to them for a trial and was taken on when the club utilised the Governments Youth Training Scheme.

One morning he reported to Spotland to carry out normal duties when he learned that first choice 'keeper, Dave Redfearn had suffered an injury and there was no ready cover.

Manager, Eddie Gray was left with no other alternative but to turn to his raw yet reliable recruit. The YTS had suddenly become to mean 'your turn son', and a Freight Rover Trophy game against Chesterfield was looming.

Keith recalls, "I went in one morning to find out that 'Reddie' had been injured and it came as a big shock when the gaffer told me I would probably play".

He did play and Rochdale won 3-0, and now the Manager had time to look around in an effort to secure the services of a more experienced 'keeper on loan but luckily for Keith nothing transpired and he continued for a further five or six games as the YTS lad. His progress had been monitored and he was offered full time contract.

Keith continued, "I am pleased to have proved something to Eddie Gray, and it's possibly saved the club money on a transfer fee as well. The YTS Scheme has certainly come up trumps for me". Now the appearances are totting up for the youngster.

During close season Eddie Gray has brought five or six new players to the club, including ex-Wanderer Mark Gavin and things are beginning to gel.

Keith Welch thanks the Manager and coach Jim Lumsden for his progress to date. He said "they have helped me a lot, taking me on my own to improve my game, and in return I will give them 100% and carry on learning as much as I can".

If Keith studies any goalkeeper in particular its Nevill Southall. There's one thing he has learned - it's not to be frightened by mistakes. He admitted, "of course I make them but if I miss a cross I'm not frightened of coming for the next one. Eventually I'll get it perfect".

Understandably Keith takes a lot of stick from his mates in Bolton, "but it will be the highlight of my season to play at Burnden", he concluded.

NOTICE BOARD

The recent article published in programme issue no. 2 brought a quick reaction from Mr A.F. Simister. It concerned the story about two months old Anthony Wayne Nicholson when his mother claimed must compete for Wanderers youngest fan. Mr Simister says he registered his son, Lee Alec with the Junior Whites only 2 hours after he was born. That's what we call a lifelong supporter!!

We have received a letter from Mr Rodgers, the Chairman of Crewe Alexandra's Junior Whites thanking their colleagues here at Bolton, for a good day.

One point that Mr Rodgers did have to apologise for was the language of certain of their members, something that they are keen to combat.

Crewe's representatives are looking forward to meeting up again next February.

DID YOU KNOW that last weeks visitors, Wigan Athletic have an unusual claim. Since their League career began in 1978, they are the only league club that have never been relegated.

If you're feeling the strain, Club Physio Peter Nightingale is prepared to give you the benefit of his experience.

He holds a Physiotherapy surgery every Monday and Wednesday between 6 and 7 pm for general physio and sports injuries.

For other days and/or times phone 389200.

NIGHT ON THE TOWN!

Mrs Elsie Haworth of Knight Street, Bury couldn't believe her luck when she had six winners in one week on the Wanderers lottery.

In addition she won one of the many Candlelight Dinners for two — and she was over the moon.

She said, "It became a bit of an embarrassment having to keep on going back to my Agent, Simons News in Bury, I have no plans when I will go for the meal, or who I'm taking with me."

The Wanderers lottery is very popular with Mrs Haworth and she concluded, "I like those present tickets and always buy some when I pay my papers."

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 31st August, 1982. Bolton twice came from behind to earn a 3-3 draw at Carlisle United in the first leg of the first round of the Milk Cup. Gordon Staniforth put the home side in front but Mike Doyle celebrated his first goal in major competitions for the Wanderers to equalise. Dave Hoggan put Bolton in front only for Mike Doyle to then put through his own goal. Russell Coughlin put United in front for the second time but Ian Moores squared things up with ten minutes remaining.

4th September, 1982. A crowd of 17,738 saw the Wanderers romp into a three goal half time advantage over Newcastle United, including Kevin Keegan. Tony Henry netted twice with his midfield partner Peter Reid also on the scoresheet. Newcastle's consolation came from a Keegan penalty in the dying seconds awarded after Paul Jones had fouled Chris Waddle.

10 YEARS AGO. 30th August, 1977..The Wanderers went through to the third round of the League cup with a single goal victory over Lincoln City at Burnden. The winning goal came in the third minute when an Alan Waldron shot was deflected into the net off a defender.

3rd September, 1977. Bolton gave a competent display but found goals hard to come by in a 0-0 draw at Hull City. Sam Allardyce and Neil Whatmore went close with headers as the Wanderers dominated play in a rugged battle. Hull had been handicapped by a ninth minute injury to striker John Hawley who was carried from the field after a collision with Jim McDonagh.

15 YEARS AGO. 2nd September, 1972. Bolton got back to winning ways with a fine 3-0 Derby victory over Blackburn Rovers at Ewood Park. The first goal came on the half hour after Alan Waldron collected a poor John McNamee back pass to set up John Byrom to score against his old club. Charlie Wright produced a couple of good saves from Rovers debutant Kit Napier to keep the Wanderers in front. Ronnie Phillips made it 2-0 in the 74th minute and four minutes later Ralph Wright completed the scoring. 6th September, 1972. First half goals from Brian Joicey and Peter Eustace were enough to knock the Wanderers out of the League cup at Hillsborough. It could have been different if Roy Greaves hadn't had his third minute penalty saved by Peter Grummitt.

MANSFIELD TOWN RES 0

BOLTON WANDERERS RES 3

20th August, 1987.

The Wanderers Reserves made a marvellous start to their Central League campaign with a resounding victory at League newcomers Mansfield Town.

It wasn't just the victory but also the performance that pleased manager Phil Neal along with the home supporters who were appreciative of some fine entertaining football.

Mark Winstanley went close with a header from a Derek Booth corner after only two minutes and this set the pattern for the evening. Three minutes later Ian Stevens broke clear to put the Wanderers into the lead, his shot spinning into the net of 'keeper, Andy Beasley.

Beasley was to be a thorn in the Wanderers side, making a number of class saves, and keeping the score down to a respectable level.

A couple of precise moves culminated in Nicky Brookman twice producing long range shots that the keeper spectacularly turned away.

It was third time lucky for Brookman who netted the Wanderers second goal in the 31st minute, rounding the keeper and placing the ball into the corner of the net, past a helpless Town defender on the line. The goal had been won thanks to some intense pressure by Bolton who had forced the home defence into costly errors.

Steve Elliott grabbed Bolton's third goal in the 51st minute when he rose to head home an Ian Stevens pin point cross. Stevens was then denied what would have been a spectacular goal, Beasley somehow managing to turn his volley, from the edge of the area, onto the post.

Both Derek Scott and Phil Neal on their way back to full fitness, played well in the full back positions whilst young keeper Ryan Price will have had his confidence boosted with a steady performance.

Good afternoon, and on this Bank Holiday Monday lets welcome 'The Posh' what a fine nickname that is but lets be hoping 'The Trotters' send them back home running empty handed.

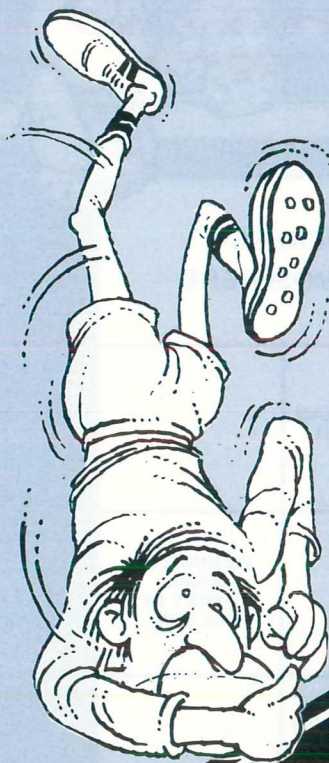

After Saturdays exodus to Scarborough, stop moaning it could well have been Runcorn, lets get back to the bread & butter of League soccer after our exploits of Cup football against Wigan. Home form will be essential if we are to achieve our goal this season, promotion to Division 3, every rival fourth division club, bar the odd one will be coming to a ground which will look like a Wembley compared to their own. We must endeavour to make Burnden as awesome as going to Anfield or Goodison, where teams are mentally a goal down before they enter the field.

Peterborough, of all the 92 League Clubs have the best opening day record, for the past five years, winning 1-0 this year against Carlisle and probably they will be around come next May when the promotion issues are finally resolved.

Last weekend, I had the awesome task of reporting on a wild bunch of sailors Messrs. Came, Joyce, Winstanley and Terry Holland (Sales Manager — a ringer if ever I saw one) who had kindly donated their time and effort for Radio Manchester's Children In Need Fund.

These Fab Four, rowing on Salford Quays sounds unbelievable but seeing is believing and in the Mark Addy Celebrity Sculls 4's our lads came in a superb 2nd only a length or so behind Manchester Spartans American Football Team, who had trained three times the previous week.

On returning to dry dock, the lads swore revenge on the Spartans in next years race, with team captain Mark Came stating "the 1988 Olympics are not out of the question if sponsorship can be found". Certainly the lads had enjoyed the day, what will be next for the wandering Wanderers, hand gliding in Hartlepool? or skiing in Scunthorpe?

INTRODUCING MICK BROWN

We're all pleased to see Mick Brown back at work after his unfortunate lawn mower accident.

But whilst Mick was in hospital he still had his finger on the button and in any case Ron Atkinson knows very well how Mick wants things doing and had been working with the players accordingly.

In Mick Brown the Club have acquired a man of vast experience, having worked in all four divisions of the Football League.

Phil Neal's playing experience together with Mick's coaching knowledge over the last decade should make a formidable partnership this term.

In his playing days Mick committed most of his career to Hull City where he spent 13 years before moving to Lincoln. Towards the end of his playing days he moved to Cambridge United as player/coach and it was there where things began to happen.

They were then in the Southern League and in two successive seasons he helped guide them to the Southern League Cup winners and Southern League Champions.

Mick's qualities hadn't gone unnoticed and he moved to Oxford United as coach. Still having to work on a shoestring he spent the next ten years, at the Manor Ground, the last four as Manager.

His fortunes turned again when he moved further North, this time to West

Bromwich Albion where he linked up with Ron Atkinson. In the two years at The Hawthorns they produced a pattern of play that revitalised the club and it showed when the club finished in the top four positions.

Then came the big breakthrough. Martin Edwards at Manchester United had obviously been impressed and took Ron and Mick to Old Trafford.

Mick recalled, "at United we never finished outside top four. We went to Wembley six times in five years in the Milk Cup, two Charity Shields, two FA Cup Finals and one replay against Brighton". Now at Burnden, Mick said, "I've not come here to mess about. I want Bolton to go straight back up. We've got to realise it won't be easy. All divisions are hard to get out of and I'll do my level best to make sure we do."

He stressed that everyone will be given a fair opportunity "I treat people as I find them. I can be a good friend, but a terrible enemy and I'm not the world's greatest loser."

Mick is very impressed with the Burnden set-up and he said, "as soon as you walk onto the car park at Bolton you know you have come to a Football Club but the reality is we're starting off the season in the fourth division and it's up to everybody to do something about it and the next nine months will tell. Final words from Mick Brown to our opposition is that he's frightened of nobody and others will be worrying about Bolton Wanderers.

GOLDEN OLDIES

"Got any cig cards Mister?" was a common enough question from any youngster during the 1920's. Today those cig cards, which were given away with cigarettes, can be worth anything from as little as 50p up to hundreds of pounds for complete sets.

The cards covered many topics but most popular were the action photos of football games played during the period.

The one reproduced was given away with Casket cigarettes and shows Wanderers left back, Alec Finney, in action during the 1923 cup semi-final against Sheffield United.

The game took place at Old Trafford, notice no cantilever stands then, and was the fourth semi-final to have been played there. The gates were opened at 10.30 and were closed an hour before the kick off with 72,000 inside. This was not only a record for Old Trafford but for anywhere in the provinces. Unfortunately thousands of would be spectators who couldn't get in broke down the gates and the crowd overflowed onto the playing pitch causing numerous stoppages. It was in fact similar as to what would happen a month later, at the opening of Wembley, but on a smaller scale.

The receipts of £7,600 were the largest taken at any cup tie except the final but the game itself was a scrappy affair, such was the prize awaiting the winners.

The only goal of the game came two minutes after the interval, David Jack, who was to score the first Wembley goal, putting the Wanderers into their third FA Cup final.

Incidentally this record crowd at Old Trafford stood until 1939 when over 76,000 attended the Wolves v Grimsby FA Cup semi-final and will now never be surpassed.

REFLECTIONS

The Wanderers face Peterborough today for the first time ever in the Football League competition.

The only occasion that the two sides have clashed was in a League cup third round tie, at Burnden, in October 1977. The Wanderers at that time were heading the second division whilst Boro' were in eighth place in the third division.

The visitors had defeated Bradford City and Scunthorpe United in the previous rounds whilst Bolton had scraped through the previous round against Lincoln City, also of the third division, by a single goal.

The Wanderers did not make the mistake of underestimating their opponents and took the lead in the 38th minute with a goal from Roy Greaves. The goal came after a number of crosses had fallen straight into the arms of goalkeeper Jim Barron.

Three minutes later the Wanderers scored again. A Peter Nicholson powerdrive was magnificently saved by Barron but he could not hold onto the ball and Sam Allardyce pounced to crash the ball into the roof of the net.

Peterborough clawed their way back into the game with a 63rd minute goal from Alan Slough, having enough time and space to pick his spot, he shot home from the edge of the penalty area.

The game was put out of Peterborough's reach in the 79th minute when Peter Reid tricked his way into the penalty area only to be brought down by Chris Turner. Neil Whatmore slotted home the penalty, sending Barron the wrong way, to give Bolton a 3-1 win.

Seventeen year old Chris Thompson made his debut in a Wanderers shirt, taking the place of Frank Worthington, the Wanderers new striker having been cup tied whilst playing for Leicester City.

OUT & ABOUT

FLANAGAN AND ALLEN

That's a 'fur' nickname for newcomers Dean Crombie and Gary Henshaw — and it's sure to spark off some dressing room wit.

The pair were team mates at Grimsby prior to their move to Burnden Park and whilst they are looking around the Bolton area for houses they are being well looked after by Brian Anderson at the Gay Willows.

Dean Crombie said, "Things are going well at the moment although it might be better when I move over here permanently because I'm doing a fair amount of travelling at the moment. I've found a good set of lads here and they have helped me to settle in".

Reflecting on progress to date, Gary Henshaw said, "I had a bit of a setback when I hurt my back in pre-season but that's all behind me now. I got off to a flyer against Crewe, scoring after 3 minutes. With so many new lads in the team one can't expect things to click straight away, but if we're winning when it's not clicked what's it going to be like when it does?"

In programme issue no 3, we outlined the work being carried out by the Football and Community Scheme which operates from within Burnden.

Last Thursday evening FC & S organised a Sports Quiz which was staged in the Executive Club. Seven teams participated in a full night of varied sports questions which had been set by Phil Ashcroft, a FC & S worker. It took Phil over three weeks solid research to prepare the papers which amounted to well over 300 questions.

Taking part were players representing the Fire Brigade, Health Authority, Trotters Revival, the Police, the P.F.A., Bolton Wanderers commercial department and the successful Morris Green 5-a-side team.

Eventual winners were the Health Authority who defeated B.W.F.C. Commercial Department.

The trophy which had been donated by the organisers on behalf of B.W.F.C. was presented by Sgt. Peter Seddon.

Organiser Gary Pierce said, "the evening went down well and talking to people afterwards, they all enjoyed it."
